Family Hospice and Palliative Care Accepting Registrations for Annual Camp Healing Hearts

Free day camp helps children who are grieving. Camp Healing Hearts is conducted by Family Hospice's experienced bereavement specialists, and consists of fun and healing exercises that help children realize that their feelings are normal – and shared by others. Activities include art and music sessions, the creation of a memory box, educational obstacle course, lunch and more. Camp Healing Hearts has taken place in Mt. Lebanon since 2004 and has expanded to additional locations in recent years. There is no cost to attend, thanks to generous funding by the Rite Aid Foundation; the Pittsburgh Pirates Alumni Foundation (supporting the Mt. Lebanon and North Side camps); and Town Hall South (supporting the Mt. Lebanon Camp).
