

Pittsburgh Post-Gazette

ONE OF AMERICA'S GREAT NEWSPAPERS

THURSDAY, MARCH 1, 2012

The North at a Glance

QUAKER VALLEY

Student Event Benefits Family Hospice

Christian Miller, a student at Quaker Valley High School, hosted a basketball skills competition Feb. 20 that raised $500 for Family Hospice and Palliative Care patient and family services.

Christian planned and executed the event, which involved medals for the winners and gifts for all participants. He undertook the project in honor of this grandmother, who was a Family Hospice patient in 2009.