Thomas Scholler, 88, of Ross, a veteran of World War II, was recently knighted by the French government.

He was honored with the Legion d'Honneur in recognition of his service in the liberation of France.

The award was presented by Honorary Consul of France Jean-Dominique Le Garrec.

Mr. Scholler served in the Army and was present at the Battle of the Bulge. He is under the care of Family Hospice and Palliative Care, where his son, Thomas, is a nurse. "I'm proud of these medals, Mr. Scholler said, "but they're not mine. They belong to the men who were with me."
