

Family Hospice Seminar

Family Hospice & Palliative Care is presenting an educational seminar, "Namaste Care: Quality of Life at the End of Life" on Tuesday, October 18; from 8:30 a.m. to 5:15 p.m. It will be held at Asbury Heights, 700 Bower Hill Road in Mt. Lebanon.

Experts will address the meaning and purpose of Namaste care; the positive effects of Namaste on dementia patients; and a holistic approach to end-of-life care. The presenters will be Joyce Simard, LSW, founder of Namaste Care; Ladislav Volicer, MD, Ph.D., author on medical issues at end of life; and Eric Horwith, MSW, LSW, Family Hospice and Palliative Care.

Public and professionals are equally welcome. The seminar provides six educational contact hours for RN's, Social Workers, Nursing Home Administrators, and Personal Care Home Administrators.

Lunch will be provided.

To register and for more information, contact Eric Horwith at 412-651-5853 or via e-mail at ehorwith@familyhospice.com.

Oct., 2011
edition