Free Seminar for Health Professionals

Family Hospice is offering a free seminar for local professionals on Monday, July 11 from 5:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. at the Center for Compassionate Care, 50 Moffett Street in Mt. Lebanon. There will be free parking.

Among the items covered will be evaluation of the physical and functional abilities of patients at the end of their life and a greater understanding of the physical therapist's role in care giving.

Light refreshments will be provided. RSVP by July 5 at 412-572-8747, or via e-mail to ehorwith@familyhospice.com.

The seminars includes two free Continuing Education Units for Registered Nurses (RN's), Social Workers (SW's), and Nursing Home Administrators (NHA's).
