

PEOPLE and AWARDS

Dr. MaryBeth Salama

Dr. MaryBeth Salama joined Family Hospice and Palliative Care as a full-time medical director. Salama is board certified in palliative care and family practice medicine. She completed the Sen. John Heinz Fellowship in Palliative Care and has served as a clinical instructor of internal medicine in the division of palliative care, both at the University of Pittsburgh. Paul Winkler, president and CEO of Presbyterian Senior Care, was elected chairperson of Family Hospice and Palliative Care's board of directors. Ann Mullaney, an attorney at Thorp, Reed & Armstrong and a board member at Family Hospice and Palliative Care, was elected vice chair of the Family Hospice board of directors. Bob Butter, principal at Veritas Communications Advisors and a board member at Family Hospice and Palliative Care, was elected Family Hospice board secretary. Joanne Hahey, CFO at Jefferson Regional Medical Center, was elected to the board of directors at Family Hospice and Palliative Care.

Paul Winkler

Ann Mullaney

Bob Butter

Joanne Hahey